

A cable subscriber pays over $200 per year to rent a box from the cable companies that are already protected by government. This kills competition, limits consumer choice, and lifts up cable profits that are already excessive.

Allow the free market to work and unlock the box to open competition and end the monopoly that cable companies have over our televisions.